

2011 CIES RESEARCH FORUM

Area Studies Revisited

The Many Faces of an Interdisciplinary Field

Launching Conference of the Comparative and Transnational Studies Research Line

20 January 2012, ISCTE-IUL, Auditorium B 203, Building II

PROGRAMME

09.30-10.00

Welcome & Introductory Remarks

António Firmino da Costa, Vice-Rector for Research of ISCTE-IUL
Fernando Luís Machado, Director of CIES-IUL
Tobias Schumacher, CIES-IUL

10.00-11.30

Area studies between local designs, regionalisation and globalisation: what relevance, what added value?

Chair: Marc Renaud, CIES-IUL
Bert Hoffmann, GIGA Hamburg
Raquel Freitas, CIES-IUL
Andrés Malamud, ICS-UL

11.30-12.00 Coffee Break

12.00-13.15

The comparison and area studies: analytical challenges revisited

Chair: Catherine Moury, CIES-IUL
Dennis Zuev, CIES-IUL
Beatriz Padilla, CIES-IUL
Sarah Mahler, Florida Int. University, Miami

13.15-14.45 Lunch Break

14.45-16.15

The many faces of transnationalism in area studies: comparing actors, structures, policies and disciplines

Chair: Angela Movileanu, CIES-IUL
Jörn Dosch, University of Leeds
Ioannis Grigoriadis, Bilkent University, Ankara
Britta Baumgarten, CIES-IUL

16.15-16.30 Coffee Break

16.30-18.00

From area studies to global studies? Analysing the latest trends of an emerging discipline in a cross-regional perspective

Chair: Ana Maria Evans, ICS-UL
Ronald Holzhaacker, University of Groningen
Remus Anghel, Romanian Institute for Research on National Minorities, Cluj
Peggy Levitt, Wellesley College

18.00 End of conference

Beatriz Padilla, CIES-IUL
Tobias Schumacher, CIES-IUL

Organisation: Beatriz Padilla and Tobias Schumacher, CIES-IUL